

Since the Telephone Consumer Protection Act has been in place, our home is a lot more peaceful. Dinners are once again peaceful. Our homes should be our haven and not be open to invasion by the commercial world.